Families are invited to learn about Erin's Law and tips for protecting their children.

Facilitated by Chicago Children's Advocacy Center

"Erin's Law," or Illinois Public Act 097-1147, requires all public schools to implement a prevention-oriented program that teaches students in pre-kindergarten through 12th grade age-appropriate techniques for recognizing sexual abuse and ways to tell a trusted adult. The program also includes training for school personnel, and provides education and resources to parents and guardians.
